One Man Shot, Two Others Taken Into Custody After Armed Robbery

Columbus Police are investigating a police shooting stemming from an armed robbery on the city's southeast side.

On January 14, 2016, at approximately 8:35 pm, patrol officers were dispatched to O'Reilly Auto Parts, located at 1455 Parsons Avenue, on a report of a possible robbery involving two masked gunmen. An employee called to report two gunmen entered the store and demanded money. S.W.A.T. officers, who were conducting a robbery stakeout, advised patrol officers to slow their response to the area for the safety of employees and customers inside the store. The gunmen exited the rear of the store and were observed getting into an awaiting vehicle.

S.W.A.T. officers followed the suspects to the intersection of S. High Street and E. Morrill Avenue where they stopped the vehicle and attempted to take the suspects into custody. The front seat passenger, Clifton Satterwhite, sprung from the vehicle and attempted to flee the area on foot. Two officers observed Satterwhite reach into his waistband at which point one officer fired one shot, as the other officer struck Satterwhite with a vehicle. Clifton Satterwhite was transported to Grant Medical Center in stable condition. The other two suspects were taken into custody without incident. No other injuries were reported.
